Events Covered

The following special events are covered when with attendance is less than 1,000: meetings and seminars; picnics and dinners; festivals and concerts; bike races and treks; foot races and treks; auctions; and golf tournaments. Separate coverage is required for any event when attendance will be greater than 1,000 or the event falls outside those listed above, as such coverage is excluded under the basic policy. Complete a separate page for each special event for which you are requesting a quote for coverage.
